OHBM Annual Meeting
1 WEEK COUNTDOWN REMINDERS

- Register: Double check you have completed registration. If not, please do so here TODAY.

- Educational Course Add-On: Enhance your Annual Meeting experience by participating in our Educational Course Day on Tuesday, June 24. These courses require an additional registration fee to participate. Click here for further information.

- Review the Program: Take a moment to familiarize yourself with the conference schedule to plan which sessions and activities you'd like to attend.

- Download the OHBM 2025 App: Utilize our app throughout the event to navigate between sessions, participate in Q&A and much more! Please use this link to download the Annual Meeting app on your iPhone, Android or web-based device.

- OHBM's Sustainability Initiative: Help us commit to our sustainability efforts by packing your reusable water bottle and downloading our mobile app! OHBM is committed to going green by cutting back on plastic cups and paper programs onsite

- Stay Informed: Keep an eye on your inbox and follow OHBM on our social media accounts for any important updates, announcements, or last-minute changes regarding the conference in the weeks to come.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the OHBM Executive Office at info@humanbrainmapping.org.
